ARIZONA GIVES COX OVATION
Emphasizes League by Analogy Between the Six Shooter and Big Bertha.
FOR LAW AND ORDER
Wants World Rid of "Bad Men" as Cattle Country Did.

By ROBERT T. BARRY.
Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co.
Prescott, Ariz., Sept. 22.—An analogy between the six-shooter and the Big Bertha was drawn in Arizona today by Gov. Cox to give point to his advocacy of the league of nations. He spoke of law and order, he held it was just as necessary to disarm the "bad men" among the nations of the world as it had been in the cattle country of the great Southwest. He declared that once the league had been established the world's peoples would no more think of reverting to the settlement of disputes by long range cannon than the citizens of Arizona would discard their orderly processes of law by courts of justice and return to the unwritten law of the range riders' six-shooter.

WISDOM, Skill, Honesty
Three essentials of good dentistry, without which dentures are impossible.
"Wisdom consists of knowing WHAT to do, Skill in knowing HOW to do it, and Honesty in doing IT."
It is our twenty-six years of honest dentistry that we have found out that these three things that it pays to give people better service than they really expect and charge them less than they expect to pay.
Promises will get you friends, but non-performance will turn them into enemies.
By Dr. Wyeth and Staff of Expert Dentists. That has been our record for the past twenty-six years.
Terms of Payment to Suit—Cleanliness is one of our many striking features.

Emil ("Jazz") Casper
Mr. Casper is seen as the featured comedian with Dave Marion's Own Show at the Gayety this week.

Personality Makes A Star of Casper

"It's not your feet that dance, it's you," said Emil ("Jazz") Casper, when a reporter asked him to express himself about modern dancing. "Jazz" is the blackface comedian at the Gayety this week with Dave Marion's Own Show, and he substantiated by showing how he puts across his own act without indulging in a great many intricate and, as he claims, unnecessary steps. Most certainly if his success is a criterion he is quite right. He doesn't have to "throw his feet all over the place" to gain the approval of the audience. Just a little life of shuffling and the rest of the dance is from the waist up. A shake of his shoulders, motions with his hands, facial expression—that's what puts the dance across and makes him the biggest hit of the show.

Coming to the Theaters

POLIS.
"Mom," a new comedy-drama by Rachel Barton Butler, will be the attraction at Poli's Theater for the week beginning Sunday night. An excellent cast includes Minnie Dupree, Minna Gombel, Warner Daxler, Lorin Baker, Helen Weir, Averil Harris, James L. Seeley and George D. Parker. The play is in four acts.

GARRICK.
Walter Haast will bring Evelyn Nesbit to the Shubert-Garrick Theater for a week, starting next Monday in "The Green Book," a comedy drama by Philip Bartholomae. The plot concerns filial nobility and its frequent reward. In the cast are Hyman Adler, Arthur H. Ashley and Donald Gallagher.

NATIONAL.
Booth Tarkington's native comedy, "Clarence," opens an engagement of one week at the National Theater tonight. The cast is of exceptional one and includes Alfred Hunt, Phoebe Foster, Mary Boland, Glenn Hunter, John Flood, Viola Harper, William Lorenz, Agnes Ayres, and Susanne Westford and Barlowe Boland.

BELESCO.
The Shubert revival of "Flordora" is scheduled for the week beginning next Sunday at the Belasco. Topping the list of musical comedy celebrities is Miss Eleanor Painter. The cast includes William Danforth, Dama Sykes, Robert Pitkin, Maxine Brown, Walter Woolf, Harry Fenwick, Isabelle Rodriguez and Nae Bonville. Equally important is the picture "Tell Me Pretty Maiden" sextette.

B. F. KEITH'S.
Next week at B. F. Keith's, Emma Carus in songs of her own devising will be the principal attraction. Ruth Royce, comedienne; Wallace Bradley and Grette Ardine in "The Follies of Song and Dance"; Zillah Zillah in "The Follies of Song and Dance"; and the Lorraine Hodson company; Kafka and Stanley, and other house features will fill the bill.

STRAND.
Next week, beginning Monday, the Strand will offer "Mercedes," the psychic wonder, with Mlle. Stantone, Rice and Elmer, in twists and turns; "The French Refugee," violin virtuoso; Wells, Virginia and West; "Playmates," by F. M. Wolf; Miss Billie Burke, in "The Stafford Mystery," and other acts.

GAYETY.
"The Liberty Girls," at the Gayety Theater next week, feature Jack Conway in "Tilly's Honey-moon," a two-act musical burlesque. In his support are Ted Burns, Dorothy Douglas, R. George Burnett, Al Wilson, Thomas O'Brien, James Oliver, Pauline Hare, Maria Doña, Frankie Burns, Harold Boyd, William Cathcart and others.

FOLLY.
Charles Robinson and his Parisian Flirts will start a week's engagement at the Folly next Sunday. For many seasons this comedian and his company has played Washington. The two-act book is filled with novel situations while the music is excellent.

COLUMBIA.
"Humoresque," Fannie Hurst's Cosmopolitan classic, will continue at Loew's Columbia Theater throughout the current week. "The Right to Love," featuring Mae Murray and David Powell, will be presented next Sunday afternoon at Loew's Columbia Theater for an engagement of indefinite length. It is

APPLE CROP SO BIG TREES ARE BREAKING
Hagerstown, Md., Sept. 22.—Thousands of bushels of apples will go to waste in this section. It is claimed, because farmers and fruit growers cannot find a market. In many of the orchards trees are breaking down under the weight of the apples so great is the yield.
Owing to the tremendous crop, prices of apples are slumping and growers are selling the fruit out of their orchards lower than at any time in recent years.

MAN AND WIFE HELD FOR WOMAN'S DEATH
Martinsburg, Sept. 22.—Dr. Virginia McCune Rossa and her husband, L. Kismet Rossa, were jointly indicted this afternoon by a grand jury in Berkeley County Circuit Court charged with causing the death of Mrs. Arlan Bowers, wife of George Meade Bowers and daughter-in-law of Congressman George M. Bowers of this city. Mrs. Bowers died a few weeks ago after an alleged illegal operation.
The same jury indicted Charles W. Brown for the alleged murder of his wife, Belle Brown, who was beaten to death with a shotgun.

METROPOLITAN.
Next week will bring to Crandall's Metropolitan, beginning Sunday afternoon, Mack Sennett's five-reel travesty, "Married Life." Ben Hurpin, Charles Murray, Phyllis Haver, James Finlayson, Charles Conklin, Ford Sterling, Louise Fazenda, Kalla Pasha, Charlotte Mineau and the famous Sennett beauties all play important parts.
For the coming days of the current week, Erich von Stroheim's "The Devil's Passkey," will continue at the Metropolitan.

RIALTO.
Annette Kellerman in "What Women Love," will continue the opening at Moore's Rialto for the remainder of the current week. Mary Miles Minter will be seen at Moore's Rialto next week, beginning Sunday, in "Sweet Lavender" by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero. The cast includes Theodore Roberts, Harold Goodwin and Milton Sills.

PALACE.
Charles Ray will continue at Loew's Palace throughout the current week in "The Village Sleuth," beginning Sunday afternoon. David Wark Griffith's latest masterful production, "The Love Flower," based on Ralph Stock's Collier's Weekly story, "Black Beach," personally directed by Mr. Griffith and featuring Richard Barthelmess, Carol Dempster, George MacQuarrie and others will be presented.

GARDEN.
Thomas H. Ince's "Homespun Folks" is at Moore's Garden Theater this week, the run closing Saturday. Next week, beginning Sunday, will bring to Moore's Garden Dorothy Dalton in "Half an Hour," adapted from Sir James M. Barrie's success of the same name. A special cast including Charles Richman, Albert Barrett, Frank Losee, H. Cooper, Cliffe and Hazel Turney will be seen.

KNICKERBOCKER.
Today and tomorrow, Mary Miles Minter will be pictured in "Jenny Be Good" at Crandall's Knickerbocker. Saturday, Paul Armstrong's "Going Some," Sunday and Monday, Mack Sennett's "Married Life," Tuesday and Wednesday, Dustin Farnum in "Big Happiness," Thursday and Friday, Constance Talmadge in "The Perfect Woman," Saturday, Constance Binney in "32 East."

CRANDALL'S.
For the last three days of the present week Crandall's will offer D. W. Griffith's "The Idol Dancer," with Richard Barthelmess, Clara and Clarence Seymour, Sunday through Tuesday, Marshall Neilan's picture-ization of "The River's End," last four days of the week, "Back to God's Country," with Neil Shipman.

CHEVY CHASE LAKE.
Hundreds of dancers are enjoying the delightful evenings at Chevy Chase Lake. Open-air dancing on the two spacious pavilions is the principal feature, and the music is furnished by the Meyer Davis Orchestra. The pavilions will remain open for the balance of September.

CHESAPEAKE BEACH.
The second of a series of special excursions for fishing enthusiasts will be held at Chesapeake Beach next Sunday. Trains will leave the District line at 9:15 and 10 a. m., and returning trains will leave the beach at 5:00 and 5:45 p. m.
